How does Basketball England use any of my information?

Basketball England provides an online database, but make its own use of the following information:

- your name;
- your gender;
- your date of birth;
- your Basketball England license number
- your home address, email address and phone number; and
- Your type of membership and involvement in particular teams at the Club, or any key role you may have been allocated, such as Chair, Safeguarding Lead, Membership Secretary etc.

Basketball England uses this information as follows:

As required by Basketball England to conduct its business and pursue its legitimate interests, in particular:

- Communicating with you or about you were necessary to administer basketball in England.
- administering and ensuring the eligibility of players, match officials and others involved in English basketball – this may involve the receipt of limited amounts of sensitive data in relation to disabled players, where they are registered for a disabled league or team, or in relation to anti-doping matters;
- maintaining records of the game as played in England, in particular maintaining details of discipline, misconduct and safeguarding cases;
- maintaining statistics and conducting analysis on the make-up of basketball's participants;
- ensuring compliance with the current Basketball England Rules and Regulations including those on the affiliation of clubs, local leagues, associations and other basketball bodies, and registration of players; and;
- Communicating with you to ask for your opinion on Basketball England initiatives.

For purposes which are required by law:

- Basketball England will ensure, where you will work with children and where this is required, that you have undergone an appropriate DBS check – this is also carried out with your consent.
- Basketball England may respond to requests by government or law enforcement authorities conducting an investigation.

Withdrawing consent or otherwise objecting to direct marketing

Wherever we rely on your consent, you will always be able to withdraw that consent, although we may have other legal grounds for processing your data for other purposes, such as those set out above. In some cases, we are able to send you direct marketing without your consent, where we rely on our legitimate interests. You have an absolute right to opt-out of direct marketing, or profiling we carry out for direct marketing, at any time. You can do this by following the instructions in the communication where this is an electronic message, or by contacting us using the details set out below in the "Meet the team" section on our website.

Who will we share this data with, where and when?

In addition to sharing data with Basketball England, we will share you data with:

Some limited information may be shared with other stakeholders in basketball, such as other clubs, associations, league organisers, so that they can maintain appropriate records and assist us in organising matches and administering the game.

Personal data may be shared with government authorities and/or law enforcement officials if required for the purposes above, if mandated by law or if required for the legal protection of our or Basketball England's legitimate interests in compliance with applicable laws.

Personal data will also be shared with third party service providers, who will process it on our behalf for the purposes identified above.

Where information is transferred outside the EEA, and where this is to a stakeholder or vendor in a country that is not subject to an adequacy decision by the EU Commission, data is adequately protected by EU Commission approved standard contractual clauses, an appropriate Privacy Shield certification or a vendor's Processor Binding Corporate Rules. A copy of the relevant mechanism can be provided for your review on request.

What rights do I have?

You have the right to ask us for a copy of your personal data; to correct, delete or restrict (stop any active) processing of your personal data; and to obtain the personal data you provide to us for a contract or with your consent in a structured, machine readable format.

In addition, you can object to the processing of your personal data in some circumstances (in particular, where we don't have to process the data to meet a contractual or other legal requirement, or where we are using the data for direct marketing).

These rights may be limited, for example if fulfilling your request would reveal personal data about another person, or if you ask us to delete information which we are required by law to keep or have compelling legitimate interests in keeping.

You have the same rights for data held by Basketball England for its own purposes.

To exercise any of these rights, you can get in touch with us or, as appropriate, Basketball England or its data protection officer. If you have unresolved concerns, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

Much of the information listed above must be provided on a mandatory basis so that we can make the appropriate legal checks and register you as required by Basketball England Rules and Regulations. We will inform you which information is mandatory when it is collected. Some information is optional, particularly information such as your medical information. If this is not provided, we may not be able to provide you with appropriate assistance, services or support.

How do I get in touch with you or Basketball England?

If you have any concerns about how Basketball England process your data, you can get in touch at info@basketballengland.co.uk or by writing to Basketball England, National Squash Centre, Etihad Campus, Gate 13, Rowsley Street, M11 3FF.

How long will you retain my data?

We process the majority of your data for as long as you are an active member and for one year after this.

Where we process personal data for marketing purposes or with your consent, we process the data for one year unless you ask us to stop, when we will only process the data for a short period after this (to allow us to implement your requests). We also keep a record of the fact that you have asked us not to send you direct marketing or to process your data indefinitely so that we can respect your request in future.

Basketball England will maintain records of individuals who have registered on their database, records of DBS checks and the resulting outcomes and other disciplinary matters for such period as is set out in Basketball England's privacy notice to be set out on www.basketballengland.co.uk

Records of your involvement in a particular match, on team sheets, on results pages or in match reports may be held indefinitely both by us and Basketball England in order to maintain a record of the game.
